

The Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION

Addressing a judge of the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories

In the courtroom and judges' Chambers, counsel may use either "Justice _____" or "Your Honour", when addressing a judge of the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories. Counsel are asked to refrain from addressing the judge as "My Lord", "My Lady", "Your Lordship", or "Your Ladyship".

Dated this 10th day of November 2000, and issued by direction of the judges of the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories.

J.E. Richard
J.S.C.

J.Z. Vertes,
J.S.C.

V.A. Schuler,
J.S.C.