

ADDITIONAL CHILD SUPPORT DATA SHEET FOR UNDUE HARDSHIP (SECTION 12(3) & (4))
STANDARDS OF LIVING TEST

STEP 1 Establish the annual income of each person in each household
Sections 15 to 20 less total tax payable on this income.

Guideline Income	Gross	Tax	Net	Payor's Household	Recipient's Household
Payor	$	$ =	$	$
Recipient	$	$ =	$		$
Other Persons in Household
Guideline Income	Gross	Tax	Net
Payor	$	$ =	$	$
Recipient	$	$ =	$		$

STEP 2 Adjustments on an annual basis - For Both
ADD: (Net of Applicable Income Tax)

Guideline amount before claim for hardship (Recipient Only)	N/A	$
Any amount of child support received for any child after tax if not already included in annual personal income	$	$
TOTAL ADDITIONS AMOUNT	$	$

DEDUCT: (Net of Applicable Income Tax)

Guideline amount before claim for hardship (Payor Only)	$	N/A
12(2)(A) High level of debt	$	$
12(2)(B) High access costs	$	$
12(2)(C) After tax amounts of other support orders	$	$
12(2)(D) After tax amounts of other child support	$	$
12(2)(E) After tax amounts of support to any person due to illness or disability	$	$
OTHER (specify)	$	$
TOTAL DEDUCTIONS AMOUNT	$	$

STEP 3 Result of Steps 1 and 2 is:

	Add up to	Add up to
Total Household Adjusted Income	$	$

STEP 4 Establish from table the low-income measures amount for each household

$	$
----	----

STEP 5 Determine adjusted household income ratios

Total household adjusted income - Step 3	$	$
Divided by
Low-income measures amount - Step 4	$	$
Equals
Adjusted household income ratio	$	$

STEP 6 The household that has the highest ratio has the highest standard of living.

